Nationally, in 2005, the proportion of women aged 16 and older in poverty was 12.7 percent, compared with 9.2 percent for men (IWPR, 2006). The higher rate of women’s poverty is reflected in very high rates of poverty for families headed by women alone.

Source: Institute for Women’s Policy Research (IWPR) Briefing Paper, December 2006